

CLASS 10 | BE A (PEN) PAL!

Resources

Famous Letters for Inspiration: These samples are all from the site, <http://www.lettersofnote.com>. There is a compilation of inspiring correspondences available on this site, or in the form of a book.

- What I Know Now: Letters to My Younger Self | Maya Angelou
- Advice from Harper Lee to a Fan
- From Mark Twain to an "Idiot of 33rd Degree"

More Love Letters: It all started with one crazy idea – that the world could use a few more love letters. What followed was a movement that has made thousands feel more loved. Visit the website to learn more about the “More Love Letters” movement, how to start a “More Love Letters” campaign at your own site, or how to fulfill love letter requests for the organization.

LIST OF ORGANIZATIONS THAT ACCEPT LETTERS:

Amnesty International. Amnesty International fights on behalf of individuals worldwide facing political repression and torture. Their “Write for Rights” sponsors letter writing campaigns on behalf of persons throughout the world.

A Million Thanks. This organization sends letters to U.S. active, reserve and veteran military to demonstrate thanks and support for their service.

More Love Letters. As described above, this organization collects love letters for distribution.

Local Organizations. There are a number of local organizations that will welcome cards for those they serve. Try partnering with organizations in your community such as: homeless shelters, food banks, hospitals, hospice programs, or meal delivery programs.