

RESOURCES

CLASS 15 | READY, SET, CARTOON

WORKSHEETS

Each worksheet offers step-by-step instructions for drawing a cartoon figure. You will need a copy of the worksheet for each class member, in addition to blank paper, pencils and erasers for them to do the exercise. You can also provide pens and markers to further enhance the completed cartoons if time allows. You can choose one cartoon worksheet to do together in class, then provide the rest as handouts.

- “How To Draw Mickey Mouse” Worksheet. This worksheet provides step-by-step instructions for drawing America’s favorite mouse.
- “How To Draw An Airplane” Worksheet. This worksheet provides step-by-step instructions for drawing a simple airplane.
- “How To Draw A Rocket Ship” Worksheet. This worksheet provides step-by-step instructions for drawing a rocket ship.

RESOURCES

- Cartoon Critters. Instructional pages you can download and share with your group covering a wide range of cartoon figures and characters, with a variety of difficulty levels.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

- The Complete Cartoons of the New Yorker | Robert Mankoff. This book is offered at inexpensive prices and is a great resource to show and inspire people interested in cartooning.
- American Political Cartoons | Stephen Hess and Sandy Northrop. This wonderful collection of political cartoons from 1754-2010 offers a great overview of the medium.
- Cartooning the Head and Figure | Jack Hamm. This is an instructional book that has sold over a million copies since its publication in 1986. For those interested in beginning to cartoon, this is a great asset.
- Draw 50 Famous Cartoons: The Step-by-Step Way to Draw Your Favorite Classic Cartoon Characters | Lee J. Ames. A fun way to engage people by allowing them to draw beloved figures and characters from their childhoods.

RESOURCES

